The Georgetown Public Library (GPL) is an independent library within the Delaware Division of Libraries Consortium. GPL's two sources of governmental funding are Sussex County and the State of Delaware, which together provide three-quarters of the total annual budget. Subsequently, GPL relies on philanthropic gifts and grants for 25% of its annual operating budget. All donations made to the Georgetown Public Library are tax deductible because the library is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit (Tax ID: 51-0117302).
